

FRIDAY, AUGUST 18. 1743.

Petersburgh, July 30.

THIS Court is extremely well pleased with the Compliment paid to his Imperial Highness, the Grand Duke, by the King of Poland, who has sent him the Order of the White Eagle, with which he is to be invested on the 3d of next Month. Her Imperial Majesty seems resolved to keep up a close friendship with all the neighbouring Powers, and particularly with Poland, by supporting there, to the utmost of her Power, the Interest of the present Royal Family. The still talk of setting the Prince and Princess of Brunswick at Liberty, but nobody pretends to assign the Time. The common Opinion is, that when the Affairs of Europe are a little better settled, their Highnesses will be permitted to retire to Dantzick; but then this depends entirely on the Conduct of his Prussian Majesty towards the Court, and on the Turn that Affairs may take in Germany; for if, as some People give out, his Prussian Majesty should embrace a new System, our Court may probably take a different Resolution. In the mean time, we are assembling a very considerable Army in Courland, which, after the Election of a Grand Duke, will certainly march to execute the Scheme concerted between his Court, that of Great Britain, and the rest of the Allies.

Berlin, August 17. His Majesty arrived here from Silesia on the 13th, and on the 14th he gave Audience to the Foreign Ministers; at which M. Vailori, who resides here on the Part of France, declared, That his Majesty desired nothing more than to see Peace concluded amongst all the Powers at War, under the Mediation of the King, our Sovereign. Since that, a Report hath been read of a Congress that is to be held at Aix la Chapelle, under the Eye of our Monarch. This, however, not credited here; from an Apprehension, that if anything of this Sort be really designed, Things cannot be so great Forwardness as to admit of any such Congress. But what seems to put the Matter out of Doubt, is to shew that the King's Inclinations lean another way, is his Behaviour at the late Reviews; when he told his Officers, that such as were inclined to make the Campaign as Volunteers in the Service of the Queen of Hungary, might do it without further Permission. Besides, one of the principal Objects of the present War, is to obtain an Equivalent for Silesia, and the Guaranty of the Emperor, and Empire, for his Majesty's quiet Possession.

Frankfort, August 18. Most of the French Troops that were returned to Spire, are marched back again, for the second or third Time, into Alsace; and there remains at present at Spire only a small Detachment, to cover those who are employed in transporting from thence the Corn and Forage which M. Noailles thought proper to amass, in order to prevent the Allies from shifting there, in case they should think proper to advance into those Parts. The Marshal pretends, that he has paid the Owners, but it is in an odd Manner; for he has given them his own Price, and has taken such Measures as will make the Money of little Use to them. For having left them neither Corn nor Hay, they must be obliged to sell their Cattle, because they cannot feed them; at the same time they will be obliged to purchase Corn for their own Subsistence in other Countries, at double the Price the Marshal thought fit to give them for theirs. But the Case of the People of Lamheim is by far the hardest of all. The Marshal had stripped them bare as the rest, and ordered their Corn and Hay to be carried to Lindau, under an Escort of 50 Dragoons. Upon the Road they were met by one of Col. Trenck's Detachments, to whom the Dragoons left the Corn and Forage, without entering into any Dispute: But as Col. Trenck was not so generous as to send it back to the People of Lamheim, so M. Noailles is not like to prove so obliging to pay these poor People in the same Proportion as he did the rest; so that while their Neighbours lose half, these Folks will lose all.

Strasbourg, August 9. The March of the Austrian Army under the Command of Prince Charles of Lorraine, has thrown this Province into such an Agitation, as would have been credited three Months ago; and the Country people crowd with their Effects into Towns, and the inhabitants of those very Towns would be glad to have their Effects conveyed into Places where they might be more secure. The Peasants have every where taken Arms, and the Country is every where overflow'd with Troops. The Armies ascending, and descending the Rhine, ruin the Places through which they pass by their Marches and Countermarches, and are, at the same time, ruined themselves; this excessive Fatigue wearing out both the Bodies and Spirits of the Soldiers. One hundred Squadrons of Horse and Dragoons, and 53 Battalions of old Troops, are posted along the Banks of the Rhine, from Huningen to Spire. They are quarter'd either in the Villages, or where that can be done more conveniently, in the Ruins of the old Fortifications thrown up in former Wars. In the Spaces between the Quarters of the Regular Troops, are disposed Bodies of armed Peasants; and, at proper Distances, there are either a Train of Small Field-Pieces, or a few Cannon mounted on Batteries. All these Precautions are taken purely to prevent the Pandours, Croats, Waradins, and the rest of those troublesome People, from passing the River; while the Armies under the Command of M. Noailles, and the Count de Saxe, deal as well as they can with Prince Charles and the Allies.

Nuremberg, August 15. We are of Opinion here, that the Answer given by Prince Charles to the Proposal of the French Governor for evacuating Egra, was not very satisfactory; since, the Day before Yesterday, the Garrison made a Sally, and carried in 25 Oxen. It is reported, that they have also discovered in the Place a very rich Treasure for them, viz. as much Corn and Flower as will last them six Weeks, in the Outhouses of a Convent.

Mentz, August 17. The best Part of the Army of the Allies is still on the other Side the Rhine, nor can we judge when they intend to pass it. His Electoral Highness has been to pay a Visit to his Britannick Majesty, and his Majesty has been here to return it. This City swarms at present with Foreign Ministers attending the King of Great Britain, amongst whom is General Brown, as Envoy Extraordinary from the Queen of Hungary; who, it was expected, would long ago have join'd the Army of Prince Charles, but it is now thought that he will continue near the Person of the King, as long as he remains with the Army. As that is posted at present, it may either move up the Rhine or down it; but the common Opinion is, that the Allies will suddenly march towards the Moselle; nay, some go so far as to affirm, that in two or three Days the heavy Baggage will be sent forwards to Luxemburg.

Extract of a Letter from Harlem, dated August 21.

'Some People have observed here a new Comet. It was first seen on Sunday last, about 12 at Night, and had then 77 Deg. 20 Min. North Declination; its right Ascension being 132 Degrees. On Monday about the same Hour, it was observ'd to have 75 Degrees North Declination, and its right Ascension about 150 Degrees. Yesterday about nine, the Comet had 72 Deg. North Declination, and its right Ascension was 161 Deg. 40 Min. All our Virtuosi are upon the Watch, and you may depend upon it, that I shall very soon send you a farther Account of this Comet, accompanied, perhaps, with a few Observations that may not prove altogether disagreeable.'

The most Noble ELIXIR,

For Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Hysterick Disease or Vapours in Women.

IN three Days Time demonstrates every one who takes it, that it is absolutely infallible in the thorough Cure of those perplexing Indispositions, even in the highest and most grievous Degree, where nothing but Divine reigns, where Reasoning is interrupted or deprav'd, and the Mind is confus'd with terrible Perturbation, Anxiety, and Despondency, even to Distraction, and the Body afflic'ted with almost innumerable Ailments.

'Tis surprizing to see how soon this CELEBRATED ELIXIR, (even a few Doses of it only) entirely cures the vast Variety of Symptoms, and induces a new Train of cheerful and pleasant Ideas, instead of those deep and black Thoughts, those direful Apprehensions that so tenaciously dwell upon the soul, clouded the Understanding, and destroy'd all Notion of ever receiving Comfort again; for it occasions a Flow of the disbur'd Spirit, and causes bright Gleams of Joy to break in upon the Heart, and chase away the whole Load of depressed and melancholy Imaginations so effectually, that the Patients are feelingly reliev'd both in Body and Mind; and now enjoying perfect liberty and lively Spirit, ready, serene, and gay Thoughts, and as much amaz'd that they could be chain'd down to such a dismal Way of Thinking, such dreadful Fears, and dark Inconveniences as before, they were hopeless of ever getting free from them.

In a Word, the Effect of this NOBLE ELIXIR is so suddenly and infallibly curing HYPOCHONDRICK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the HYSTERICK DISEASE, or VAPOURS in Women, in all their Shapes and Appearances, even after all other Remedies have proved fruitless, is explicable, as the vast Numbers of both Sexes who have been perfectly cured by it, with the utmost Satisfaction declare.

It occasions no Manner of Disorder, is pleasant to take, the Drops of it are a Dose, and it is to be had only at Mr. RADCLIFFE's Dispensary, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

For the immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever,

And also of

IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of so long Standing,

The Famous and Inestimable

PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The highest, richest and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and infallible Cure

for BARRENNESS in Women and IMPOTENCY in Men, the Universe, and which it at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the useful Curricule of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid, depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling, opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Humour, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced, how exceedingly and sensibly it renovates, recruits, and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It infuses a bright, lively Disposition, banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression. The abundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deemed irreparably Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and become Fruitful; and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who in fast living, or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, inasmuch, that very many illustrious Families, who for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs. It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even keeps back the Effects of Old Age itself. It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at Mr. RADCLIFFE's Dispensary, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.
